Saint Stanislaus Parish

The Jews murmured about Jesus because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven," and they said, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph? Do we not know his father and mother? Then how can he say, 'I have come down from heaven'?" Jesus answered and said to them, "Stop murmuring among yourselves. No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draw him, and I will raise him on the last day. It is written in the prophets:

They shall all be taught by God.

Everyone who listens to my Father and learns from him comes to me. Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father. Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert, but they died; this is the bread that comes down from heaven so that One may eat it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven, whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world. "

John 6: 41-51

Dear Family,

Pastors Corner

Last week we examined 10 reasons to make a Holy Hour and this week we focus on “how to make a Holy Hour”, the 3rd part in this series on Eucharist adoration. There are many ways to pray a Holy Hour! You might read Scripture, journal, or you might simply sit and talk with God, Or you can pray with a combination of all the above. However, we don’t want to attempt a holy hour without some structure because we can easily become bored, begin to fidget, and end up feeling defeated. So what is one good way to make a holy hour?

Minutes 0-10 (Enter into Prayer): Your mind will be full of “stuff” and “noise” from the day that will initially distract you. Collect yourself by praying “Come, Holy Spirit”, an Our Father, and by making the Sign of the Cross. Next, I find it helpful to simply write down or tell Jesus the things that are racing through my mind and to surrender these things to him.

Minutes 10-20 (Adoration): In the words of St. John Vianney, it is a time when “I look at Him and he looks at me.” We lean on Jesus’ breast, like John did at the last supper, and allow his heart to speak to ours. Just lovingly gaze at the Blessed Sacrament and let God love you.

Minutes 20-25 (Contrition): Spend a few minutes asking the Holy Spirit to reveal where you have fallen short and where you might need to ask for God’s mercy. Resolve to go to Confession as soon as you’re able.

Minutes 25-40 (Meditation/Conversation): This is the heart of it. I advise you to never go to a holy hour without something to meditate on! Do not read the whole time (and miss the loving gaze of Jesus), but don’t go empty handed. It is helpful to read a little (say, 5-10 verses from the Gospels), and then to put your book down and speak to Jesus. I would recommend a Bible, “The Imitation of Christ by Thomas à Kempis”, or some other spiritual book. We begin to grow in our “interior knowledge of the Lord” as we contemplate his words, his life, and his real presence before us. It is also a time when we listen to him and allow him to speak to us. This is also a time when we can tell him everything about how we are and how we feel. It is also a time to tell him about our day and to ask his help in ways in which we need it. Make sure to listen!

Minutes 40-45 (Thanksgiving): Spend some time thanking God for the gifts in your life. This might be something big, such as a new friendship or job, or it might be something small, like your coffee in the morning or the nice walk you took yesterday afternoon.

Minutes 45-55 (Intercession): Pray for the people in your life and entrust your concerns and needs to God.

Minutes 55-60 (Resolution): How is God calling you to change? What did he put on your heart during this Holy Hour?
