Pastor's Corner

Hey Family,

I hope you're having a great week. There's been lots going on here at our parishes. I've been busy with interviewing our Confirmation students and 1st Communicants, researching a new hardback hymnal for our parish, finishing up with taxes (yuck!), and preparing to officiate for my mom's wedding on May 8th! I had a guest visitor come up to visit me and to make sure I was doing well, as this is his current role for our archdiocese (checking up on us priests and helping us out with anything we need). In case you don't know him, it is Fr. Francis Hund and he is originally from Paxico, but is now residing at Prince of Peace in Olathe. It's great to have the wise, local priests of the archdiocese encouraging us newer priests and checking up on us to see if we need anything.

St. Joseph, pray for us!

All for the greater Glory of God,
 Fr. Justin

FUN-FOOD-GAMES

All His Roads Lead Home!

Whatever you are going through

Of pain or circumstance,

It is not there because of luck-

It is not there by chance.

God has a special plan for you

That's known to Him alone.

So trust that He is leading right-

For all His roads lead Home!

He's promised He will never give

A thing too much for us.

But make escape in every trial-

So in His mercy trust.

Sometimes the way is smooth and fine;

Sometimes all rock and stone-

But, whatever way He leads,

All His ways lead Home!

He uses pain, He uses others,

To bring deep needed change.

No circumstance He gives to us

Is in our life in vain!

Oh, child of His, don't be concerned

The path ahead's unknown-

For with the Savior as your guide,

All the roads lead Home!
