Driving Out Demons In Jesus's Name

At that time, John said to Jesus, "Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in your name, and we tried to prevent him because he does not follow us." Jesus replied, "Do not prevent him. There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me. For whoever is not against us is for us. Anyone who gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ, amen, I say to you, will surely not lose his reward.

"Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him if a great millstone were put around his neck and he were thrown into the sea. If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed than with two hands to go into Gehenna, into the unquenchable fire. And if your foot causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life crippled than with two feet to be thrown into Gehenna. And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out. Better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into Gehenna, where 'their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched.' "

Mark 9: 38-43, 45, 47-48

Marriage Minute ~

How far should we go?
In marriage, sin can be easy to spot... in our spouse! In this weekend's Gospel, Jesus gets really serious about sin, and, therefore, he raises the bar on how far we should go to root out sin.
If our marriages are the most important relationship on earth, it is worth taking a look at how we can root out sins against our spouse:

- Switch to a flip phone or use accountability software to keep from looking at inappropriate websites, or even just to keep your phone from becoming a distraction.
- Intentionally flood your relationship with affirmation to correct a habit of criticism.
- Withdraw from activities that make too many demands on family time or Sunday Mass.
- Set reminders for yourself to do the things that make your spouse feel loved to avoid taking him/her for granted.
