

Immaculate Conception Parish, St. Marys

Holy Cross Church, Emmett

St. Stanislaus Parish, Delia/Rossville/Silver Lake

James and John said “Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left.”

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Jesus and said to him, “Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you.” He replied, “What do you wish me to do for you?” They answered him, “Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left.” Jesus said to them, “You do not know what you are asking. Can you drink the cup that I drink or be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized?” They said to him, “We can.” Jesus said to them, “The cup that I drink, you will drink, and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right or at my left is not mine to give but is for those for whom it has been prepared.” When the ten heard this, they became indignant at James and John. Jesus summoned them, the Twelve and said to them, “You know that those who are recognized as rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones make their authority over them felt. But it shall not be so among you. Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

Marriage Minute ~

Have you ever felt crushed in your infirmity or weakness?
We all have seasons of life filled with serious difficulties and can relate to this weekend's readings. Whether it is physical illness, financial stress, struggling children, or spiritual desolation, the key for us as married couples is to pull together in adversity, instead of allowing distance to blossom. Here are some suggestions:
• Learn to share feelings in a safe way (Worldwide Marriage Encounter and Every Day in Love can teach you!).
• Respect that your spouse may NOT react to the situation the way you do.
• Pray together daily.
• Be generous with physical affection.
✠ Be eager to help with your spouse's responsibilities when they have a bad day.
