A Brief History of Veterans Day

Veterans Day, formerly known as Armistice Day, was originally set as a U.S. legal holiday to honor the end of World War I, which officially took place on November 11, 1918. In legislation that was passed in 1938, November 11 was “dedicated to the cause of world peace and to be hereafter celebrated and known as ‘Armistice Day.’” As such, this new legal holiday honored World War I veterans.

In 1954, after having been through both World War II and the Korean War, the 83rd U.S. Congress—at the urging of the veterans service organizations—amended the Act of 1938 by striking out the word “Armistice” and inserting the word “Veterans.” With the approval of this legislation on June 1, 1954, Nov. 11 became a day to honor American veterans of all wars.

In 1968 the Uniforms Holiday Bill ensured three-day weekends for federal employees by celebrating four national holidays on Mondays: Washington’s Birthday, Memorial Day, Veterans Day, and Columbus Day. Under this bill, Veterans Day was moved to the fourth Monday of October. Many states did not agree with this decision and continued to celebrate the holiday on its original date. The first Veterans Day under the new law was observed with much confusion on Oct. 25, 1971.

Finally on September 20, 1975, President Gerald R. Ford signed a law which returned the annual observance of Veterans Day to its original date of Nov. 11, beginning in 1978. Since then, the Veterans Day holiday has been observed on Nov. 11

On the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month of 1918 an armistice between Germany and the Allied nations came into effect. On November 11, 1919, Armistice Day was commemorated for the first time.

Marriage Minute ~

A Little Goes a Long Way!
In this weekend's first reading, a destitute widow provides a cup of water and a small loaf of bread for the prophet Elijah, and her generosity is rewarded with a miracle. Her meager offering sustains them until the famine ends.
Like the widow, when we offer our spouse a small kindness from our limited stock, miracles often occur. Dr. Greg Popcak stresses "caretaking in conflict" as one of the hallmarks of a successful marriage. Next time you are arguing with your spouse:

- Hold hands
- Offer to bring him/her a drink or snack
- Avoid placing blame • Use polite language

These difficult things pay off, and the miracle is that your spouse begins to believe that your relationship is more important than any issue that comes between you!
